DOMETIC FRESHWELL3000 AIR CONDITIONER

Dometic Freshwell3000 air conditioner is an under-bench conditioning unit that can be installed in vehicles measuring up to 8 metres in length. The compact size and powerful cooling capacity make for an efficient space-saving solution to cool or heat your motorhome up to 2700 watts.

Dometic air conditioner Features

- - Compact size 628 mm x 400 mm x 286 mm that conveniently fits even under the bench of your RV or caravan. This allows you to cool or heat your vehicle without adding any load to your roof, without altering the weight or volume of your vehicle or affecting the centre of gravity of your vehicle. Imagine having that perfectly cool or warm RV without having to worry about fitting into your garage safely.
- - The Dometic Freshwell3000 air conditioner generates a pleasant air stream and maintains excellent silence while doing so. Take a look at our collection of supplementary accessories to yield the effect you desire with your Dometic Freshwell3000.
- - Customize the distribution of the flow to suit your needs with its air diffuser system. Position your Dometic Freshwell3000's outlet grill where you need them. You can decide for the stream to either be concentrated in one section of your RV or diffused to different rooms in a targeted manner.
- - The Dometic Freshwell3000 air conditioner comes with a remote control with which you can effortlessly activate all the functions of the conditioning system. On/Off, temperature selection, blower speed, operating mode- your selection will be displayed on the digital display of the remote.
- - The system has a soft start mechanism to ensure safe start-ups at campsites where you may have low electrical protection.
- - The Dometic Freshwell3000 conditioner has a cooling capacity of up to 2700 W and a heating capacity of up to 3000 W- either of the modes can be activated easily by remote control. The quiet unit and three blower speeds make it easy to maintain an ideal and comfortable temperature in your RV.
